

UU-SIKS symposium "Perspectives on Process Improvement"

We are pleased to invite you to participate in the UU/SIKS scientific symposium entitled "Perspectives on Process Improvement" that will be held in conjunction with the doctoral defense of Kevin Vlaanderen. The symposium will take place on Monday 27 October 2014 from 10:00 to 13:30 in room 1636 of the academic building (Academiegebouw) situated in Domplein 29, Utrecht.

All SIKS-members are cordially invited to participate. The event is part of the advanced components stage of SIKS PhD-program. Especially SIKS-PhD-students working on the focus Enterprise Information Systems are strongly encouraged to register.

The program of the symposium is as follows:

10:00-10:30 Fabiano Dalpiaz (Utrecht University, Netherlands)
Participatory and Gamified Software Engineering

10:30-11:00 Pär Ågerfalk (University of Uppsala, Sweden)
Software Sourcing in the Age of Open

11:00-11:30 Jolita Ralyté (University of Geneva, Switzerland)
Steering the Evolution of Enterprise Information Systems

11:30-12:00 Jerzy Nawrocki (Poznan University of Technology, Poland)
AI Methods for Software Development

12:00-12:30 Kevin Vlaanderen (Utrecht University, Netherlands)
On the Feasibility of Automated Method Engineering

12:30-13:30 Lunch

Participation in the symposium is free of charge, but registration is required. If you are going to attend, please communicate your intention to Geraldine Leebeek (G.W.P.Leebeek@uu.nl) and Fabiano Dalpiaz (f.dalpiaz@uu.nl) as soon as possible.

Deadline: October 15, 2014

A first-come-first-served policy will be adopted.

In the early afternoon (starting 14:30 sharp), Kevin Vlaanderen will defend his PhD dissertation "Supporting method evolution using incremental improvements" in the Senate Hall (Senaatszaal) of the academic building. If you wish to attend to such event, please inform the local organisation.

For all questions on the SIKS-program (requirements, ECTS-points, graduate school) please do not contact the local organisation, but send an e-mail to office@siks.nl
